

These glyphs were created and used for a working of draw from the past experience (South Node) and strengthening the present lessons (North Node) to be enlivened and quickened by the Sun (Tiphareth/Solar Plexus) and brought into manifest form (Earth/Physical/Malkuth). This working was begun at the New Moon, bolstered at the Full Moon and refined and re-defined by what was hindering and identified at the 4th Quarter Waning Moon.
